Money can't buy love, but it sure comes in handy when house hunting on Fifth Ave.

Sir Paul McCartney was spotted last week holiday shopping for a new home with his wife, Nancy Shevell. They recently checked out a 16th floor four bedroom, 3½ bath condo at 1049 Fifth Ave that is on the market for $12,900,000. Built in 1928 as the Adams Hotel, the 29 story building boasts great Central Park and Reservoir views from this coop and others. The 3,335 square foot unit also includes a mahogany paneled library, and a formal dining room. Douglas Elliman listing broker Carol Staab declined to comment.
